

Emergency Nurses Association RBC Chapter 438 Member Protection (Whistleblower)

If any member reasonably believes that some policy, practice, or activity of Rio Bravo Chachalacas Emergency Nurses Association is in violation of law, a written complaint must be filed by that member with the Rio Bravo Chachalacas ENA Board President.

It is the intent of the Rio Bravo Chachalacas Emergency Nurses Association to adhere to all laws and regulations that apply to the organization and the underlying purpose of this policy is to support the organization's goal of legal compliance. The support of all members is necessary to achieving compliance with various laws and regulations. A member is protected from retaliation only if the member brings the alleged unlawful activity, policy, or practice to the attention of Rio Bravo Chachalacas Emergency Nurses Association and provides the Rio Bravo Chachalacas Emergency Nurses Association with a reasonable opportunity to investigate and correct the alleged unlawful activity.

The protection described below is only available to members that comply with this requirement.

Rio Bravo Chachalacas Emergency Nurses Association will not retaliate against a member who in good faith, has made a protest or raised a complaint against some practice of Rio Bravo Chachalacas Emergency Nurses Association, or of another individual or entity with whom Rio Bravo Chachalacas Emergency Nurses Association has a business relationship, on the basis of a reasonable belief that the practice is in violation of law, or a clear mandate of public policy.

Rio Bravo Chachalacas Emergency Nurses Association will not retaliate against members who disclose or threaten to disclose to a supervisor or a public body, any activity, policy, or practice of Rio Bravo Chachalacas Emergency Nurses Association that the member reasonably believes is in violation of a law, or a rule, or regulation mandated pursuant to law or is in violation of a clear mandate of public policy concerning the health, safety, welfare, or protection of the environment.
